Wellness Forum Health

Annual Symposium on InforMED™ Medical Decision-Making
November 12-14 Columbus, Ohio

Featuring Special Guests...

Scott W. Atlas, M.D. is the Robert Wesson Senior Fellow in health care policy at the Hoover Institution. He is a frequent advisor to policymakers and government officials in the United States and in other countries. He has served as Senior Advisor for Health Care to several numerous candidates for President, and has counselled members of the US Congress on health care, testified before Congress, and briefed directors of key federal agencies. From July to December 2020, he served as a Special Advisor to the President and a member of the White House Coronavirus Task Force.

Peter McCullough, MD, MPH is Professor of Medicine, and Vice Chief of Internal Medicine at Baylor University Medical Center. He developed a highly effective early treatment protocol for COVID-19 and became outspoken about the incompetent handling of the COVID-19 debacle and the unnecessary deaths that resulted. He serves on the editorial boards of several journals, and has over 1000 publications and 500 citations in the National Library of Medicine.

Peter Breggin, M.D. is a Harvard-trained psychiatrist and former consultant to the National Institute of Mental Health. He has been called "The Conscience of Psychiatry" for his many decades of successful reform of the mental health field. His work provides the foundation for modern criticism of psychiatric diagnoses and drugs, and he has led the way in promoting more caring and effective therapies. His research and educational projects have resulted in major changes in product labels for dozens of antipsychotic and anti-depressant drugs. He is the co-author, with his wife, Ginger Ross Breggin, of the new book COVID-19 and the Global Predators: We Are the Prey

Speaker Bios

Tom Renz is the lead attorney who represents millions of Americans in lawsuits filed against state governments, governors, health officials, federal agencies and federal officials concerning the COVID-19 government response. Tom's legal experience began with his mentor, Nuremburg Prosecutor and international lawyer and scholar Henry T. King, Jr. Tom is the only American to serve as a clerk to the Honorable Tarun Chatterjee of the Supreme Court of India. He is an award-winning political activist, and has participated in and led many state and national campaigns that led to regulatory reforms.

Eileen Kopsaftis, P.T. is the owner of Have Lifelong Wellbeing in upstate New York and the author of the book, Pain Culprits!. She has been practicing physical therapy since 1994. While her specialties include manual techniques to correct bio-mechanical dysfunction, her passion is teaching informed healthcare decision making and instructing how to resolve chronic pain issues using self-care methods that work to restore whole body function. Eileen uses her extensive education of nearly 1,800 hours of manual and movement techniques and nutrition education combined in a four-prong approach to resolve the root causes of pain and dysfunction. Eileen speaks nationally, teaches community education classes at Hudson Valley Community College, and serves as a faculty member at the Wellness Forum Institute for Health Studies.

Mary Marshall, BSN, RN works in the workplace wellness department at Union Hospital and is also President of Eat, Learn Live Ltd. Mary facilitates the Permanent Weight Loss Program for Wellness Forum Health. She also makes delivers presentations and offers WFH programming to clients in northeastern Ohio. She is certified as a WellCoach, and has extensive experience working with people on behavioral change.

Pam Popper is the founder and President of Wellness Forum Health. The company offers educational programs to both consumers and providers that facilitate informed medical decision-making, diet and lifestyle intervention, and improved long-term health outcomes. Through its own network of providers, Wellness Forum Health offers direct-to-consumer healthcare services.

Pam has been featured in many widely distributed documentaries, including Processed People and Making a Killing and appeared in the acclaimed documentary Forks Over Knives, which played in major theaters throughout North America in 2011. She is one of the co-authors of the companion book which was on the New York Times bestseller list for 66 weeks. She is the author of Food Over Medicine: The Conversation That Can Save Your Life.

Pam is featured as the lead expert in Food Choices, appears in Diet Fiction, and also in Code Blue, which was released in early 2020. She is the author of the companion books for Food Choices and Diet Fiction.

Her newest book is COVID Operation: What Happened, Why It Happened and What's Next, which she co-authored with Shane Prier.

Beth Prier, PharmD, MS is a pharmacist, Certified Health Educator, and the director of Make Americans Free Again. Beth has five children of her own, and has a passion for teaching children how to enjoy and adopt healthy eating habits. She has created gardening programs for young children and a health curriculum for home-schooled high school students. Beth is a “foodie” and her cooking classes are always a conference favorite!
